About the Vintner and Wine

- The winery was founded in 1937 and has been in operation for 57 years since 1963.
- Yoshio Amemiya, the third generation winemaker, is in charge of cultivation, vinification and management by himself.
- 95% of the grapes used for wine are grown by contract farmers.
- The winery makes its wines from Koshu and Muscat Bailey A, both indigenous to Japan.
- The wines have won many awards both in Japan and abroad.
- The name of its signature wine is "Chanter", which means "Let's sing together".
- Tastings are available in the winery from Monday to Friday.
