About the Vintner and Wine

- The Grace Wine winery was founded in 1923 in Katsunuma, Yamanashi Prefecture.
- It is a long-established winery, currently managed by the fourth generation of the same family.
- Its key words are "global", "family", and "Koshu".
- It has vineyards in Katsunuma and Akeno, and the high-altitude Akeno vineyard has a cool climate and the longest hours of sunlight in Japan.
- The fourth generation president is the chairman of the committee that has been organizing Koshu of Japan promotional events in the UK since 2010.
- Grace Wine exports its wines to 18 countries and regions and Hong Kong is one of its most important destinations.
- In 2014, its Cuvée Misawa Akeno Koshu 2013 vintage became the first Japanese wine to win a gold award at the Decanter World Wine Awards, the world's largest international competition held in 2014.
- Winemaker Ayana Misawa is the daughter of the current president. She chose to become a winemaker and has studied in various countries, including France and South Africa.
